- Site Visits Update
 - Marlin and Vanessa did site visits on June 14th to Taber and Milk River to hand out mugs.
 - Marlin, Henny and Vanessa did a chapter meeting on June 14th in Pincher Creek. Good turn out.

- On Boarding new members
 - There have been discussions between AUPE and AHS as to who to pull in for the last 5 years. Inclusion and exclusion.
 - Some members are not out of scope in other regions.
 - Have to look at duties over all and province overall
 - Volunteer coordinator in our region is in scope and other regions they are out of scope.
- Therapy Assistants
 - Therapy Assistants are now under HSAA and no longer with AUPE.
- Questions:
 - What happens when connect care takes over for meditech, will we be laid off?
 - We have layoff agreements and procedures in place. As well as bumping agreements straight across.
 - Can an MSO say that they can't file a grievance?
 - MSOs can no day that they wont file a grievance if a member wants to they have to!
- Laundry
 - Open positions . managers cannot just slide an employee into an open position
 - Managers don't have to post casual positions
 - For temp positions they have to post for 3 months and on
 - If this is not being done contact your MSO to file a grievance
 - If an employee does not feel that they interview well they can contact education and ask for some training.
 - Staff need to stand up!

- Maintenance

- Favoritism going on
- Same issues over and over
- Staff complain about issues but nothing gets done about it.
- No support from Higher ups
- Managers are allowed to manage as they see fit

9. Date Of Next Meeting:

- We will set a meeting date after convention

10. Adjournment - 6:10 pm.
